STATE CAMPAIGN

William Jennings Bryan Will Be Orator at Inaugural Meeting in Joplin.

TO SPEAK IN OTHER CITIES.

State and National Issues Subjects on Which Speakers Will Enlighten the Public.

Immediately following the formal opening of the State Democratic campaign at Joplin, Tuesday, September 9, the orators will begin to circulate over the State and talk to the people from the platform.

It has been arranged that Mr. Bryan, who will be one of the speakers at Joplin, shall pass through the West Central portion of Missouri, speaking at Clinton in the afternoon of Wednesday, September 10, and in the evening at Sedalia.

Senator Cockrell, who has planned a thorough and complete series of speeches, will begin his canvass at Jefferson City on Monday, September 15. The Senator is in excellent health and looks forward with pleasure to the meeting with old friends in a majority of the counties. His speeches will cover the national issues, but he will not overlook the questions involved in the State campaign.

Governor Dockery will give whatever time he can spare from his executive duties to the work of making speeches. As at Holt and other towns, where he has already spoken, he will meet the State issues which have been raised by the Republican organs and leaders. His first speech before Joplin will be at Salisbury, to-morrow.

The Democratic nominees for Congress will occupy most of their speech-making time in their own districts, but some of them have arranged a few occasional interchanges and entirely remote from their own districts. This is particularly true of Congressmen Clark and Cowherd, who are in special demand as orators.

Champ Clark will speak in Edina, Clark County, on Tuesday, September 16, going from there to Oakwood, Center, New London and other towns in the Northeastern section. His canvass opens next Wednesday at Pineville.

Congressman Cowherd will open his part of the campaign at Rolla on Monday, September 8. From there he will go of Pulaski, speaking at Waynesville and Richland, and thence on through the southeast. Congressman Lloyd will open the canvass at Gallatin, Governor Dockery's home town, on Monday, September 8, and will make several speeches through the northwest. The full list of speakers and assignments will be ready for publication early this week.

W. H. Locker of Waynesville, member of the Legislature, paid his respects to Chair-man Rothweil and Secretary Mitchum Sat-urday. He reports the Democrats of Pu-iaski rapidly organizing and thoroughly harmonious. They will hold a big meet-ing this week and listen to a speech by Robert Lamar of Houston, the nominee for Robert Lamar of Houston, the no Congress in Bland's old district. Let Governor Davis Speak.

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 31.-The campaign ended here last night in a scene at West End Park, where the speaking was held in the open air. Meyers, the Republican andi-date for Governor, was the first speaker, and was given close attention by the crowd of 2,500.

Governor Davis was then introduced by Chairman Carroll Armstrong of the Democratic State Central Committee. He spoke about half an hour, when a certain element in the crowd began to jeer him, and made so much noise he could not continue. The noise was from the Republican element. Suddenly Governor Davis stopped, and, pointing to a man by a post, who was especially abusive, said to another man near him:

"Throw that man over the banister and I will pay your fine."
Finally he had to stop speaking on account of the bolsterous scene. Mr. Greaves, the insurgent Republican candidate, did not speak. The election will be held to-day. The regular Republicans have out a full State ticket and the insurgents a candidate for Governor.

ONLY A QUESTION OF POLITICAL NERVE

So-Called Republican Reform Ele ment Has Power to Oust the Kerens Faction.

COMPLIMENTS FOR FILLEY.

Lack of a Leader Realized by the Reformers, as There Is No One to Take the Aggressive Role.

To-day's developments in the local Republican organization will determine whether the so-called reform element in St. Louis will be in a position to conduct a fair primary. At noon the Executive Committee of the State Committee will announce whether it is willing to compromise with the sixteen men who have been found guilty of a conspiracy to defraud the party.

The City Committee will meet at 9 o'clock this morning at the Temple building when it will make up a list of judges and clerks to be submitted to the Executive Commit-tee. If the usual procedure is taken, this list will probably be unsatisfactory to the Executive Committee, time will be request-ed and by some sort of dilatory tactics the City Committee will succeed in laying the matter over until to-morrow. As the last hour for filing is 11 a. m. Tuesday, two or three hours of delay to-morrow morning three hours of delay to-morrow morning will assure the naming of the judges and clerks whose names have been filed with the Board of Election Commissioners.

GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

When the State Committee at its Saturday meeting left the matter in the hands of the Executive Committee for final decision no mention was made of the fact that to-day is a legal holiday. This point will be raised by the City Committee in its plea for delay.

raised by the City Committee in its pica for delay.

At that the Executive Committee, over which the reform element has absolute control, has the undoubted power to oust the sixteen men whom they found guilty. Though the sixteen have repeatedly ignored and insuited the State Committee, the old talk of "harmony" is so potent that no one can predict what will occur. Where gameness should be found, the yellow streak has appeared so often that the Republican State organization is characterized by political accuming.

This fact is evident to any one who has talked with the practical workers of the party. Outside of the State Committee room Saturday enough fine compilments were paid to Chauncey I. Filley to show that he holds a strong place in the hearts of the "boys." If he had not taken such a radical course during the past two years he could now step in and again assume the reigns of leadership.

MEANS DEFEAT OF PARTY.

MEANS DEFEAT OF PARTY. As a nominee for a State office stepped out of the committee room Saturday he re-marked to a friend: "We have just been out of the committee room Saturday he remarked to a friend: "We have just been listening to our epitanhs."

Which was undoubtedly true. So bitter is the fight that no Republican expects to carry St. Louis, and without St. Louis there is absolutely no chance of success in the State. The whole atmosphere is one of discouragement. With a fraudulent primary staring them in the face, there will be enough reform Republicans to bolt the ticket next fall to defeat it.

No one was surprised when the subcommittee from the City Central Committee appeared before the State Committee acknowledge that the sixteen were beaten. After denying that the State Committee had jurisdiction, they showed by their actions that they acknowledged its authority. Their only hope laid in tricking the State Committee, something which they did.

For, whatever else may be said, it must be confessed that the practical politicians numbered among the sixteen "traitors" are up against it unless they can stay in the game. Unlike the "pink tea" element, they must either remain in politics and thrive or go to earning their living, a prospect not so enticing.

The Executive Committee has the power

so enticing.

The Executive Committee has the power to put them out of business. Only the nerve seems to be lacking.

Yates Machine Wants Illinois Re publicans to Think There Is Nothing to It.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Springfield, Ill., Aug. 31.-The leaders of Springfield, Ill., Aug. 31.—The leaders of the Yates-Lorimer faction of Illinois Republicans are making a desperate effort to convince the rank and file of the party that the five per cent assessment scandal is worthy only a passing thought. There is handsome Perry Ellis, editor of the Quincy Whig. and the dignified John A. Cousley, editor of the Alton Telegraph, who rather lamely defended the practices of the Yates machine. They don't like the way the Republic handles the question. Mr. Ellis is the Japanese fan-tail in the Yates aquarities. the Japanese fan-tail in the Yates aquari um, and is thoroughly loyal to his party leader. Mr. Cousley occupies a more inde-pendent attitude in his party, in fact, at present he is out of commission as a trailer after leaders.

These eminent exponents of machine thought in the Republican party wilfully overlook the point to the five per-cent as-sessment. They beg the question and do not meet it fairly. Senator Cullom, Speaker Sherman, Walter Reeves and a host of other Republicans do not dodge the Issue. They state it with candor and then denounce the practice. The Republic has not gone farther than they in its criticisms. The allegation of Republican leaders is that Governor Yates and members of his kitchen cabinet, ever since the Yates administration commenced, have levied an arbitrary assessment of five per cent on every State employe under control of the Governor; that the product of this brutal manner of collecting money has not found its way into the treasury of the Republican State Committee, but forms a distinct factional or personal fund, designated as "The Dick Yates Fund"; that ostentibly it is collected for the party and really it is used to swell the power of the Yates faction by corrupting Republican primaries and conventions. kitchen cabinet, ever since the Yates ad-

by the Democrate when last in power in this State."

The Democrats did nothing of the kind. They made no "assessment" and the money they collected from office-holders was turned into the campaign tund of their State Committee. It was not used to enable a peanut to become a sweet potato. I will demonstrate the truth of this statement before a month without cames delies and experience. demonstrate the truth of this statement before a month, giving names, dates and every detail, including a first assessment under the present administration in one of the large charitable institutions. The editors of Republican journals and spellbinders of that party cannot evade the issue. The voters of Illinois know where this 5 per cent assessment money gors, and very rew of them, including employes of the Governor, indorse it, and not even Editor Ellis will attempt to defend it, except by dodging the main point.

The disclosures regarding the assessment

"REBUKE YATES IN 1901." It is claimed that the State ticket is threatened with an overwhelming defeat State will be jeopardized and the State may be lost in 1964. "Rebuke Governor Yates in the primaries in 1991," suggests a close party and personal friend of Mr. Rose. A year ago it was believed that the State

A year ago it was believed that the State Convention of 1902 would "rebute Yates," most Republicans believed it an easy thing to do—and Yates did not have a United States Senator on his side. Late in the canvass it is true that President Roose-veit joined the Yates faction and ordered the Postmasters and Federal employes to keep their hands off.

This idea of "rebuking Yates in 1934" reminds me of an interview with an influential Republican of the anti-Yates school. He told me that the party never would submit to the domination or leadership of Yates.

ministration commenced, have levied an arbitrary assessment of five per cent on every State employe under control of the Governor; that the product of this brutal manner of collecting money has not found its way into the treasury of the Republican State Committee, but forms a distinct factional or personal fund, designated as "The Dick Yates Fund"; that ostensibly it is collected for the party and really it is used to swell the power of the Yates faction by corrupting Republican primaries and conventions.

DENOUNCED AS INFAMOUS.

That is the practice Senators Mason and Cullom and Speaker Sherman and other able Republicans denounce as infamous. Editors Cousley and Ellis and other Republican defenders and apologists ought to state the question fairty. For example, nere is what Mr. Cousley says in a recent issue of his paper, referring to statements in The Republic in which were quotations from Senators Mason, Cullom, Graeme Stewart and others:

"All their force is expended in denouncing the dreadful Republicans of Illinois, who are only doing what is done everywhere, and others constructions from the dereadful Republicans of Illinois, who are only doing what is done everywhere, and the construction of the ancidental incubus, I would prefer that it be this year excepting a United States Senators and eventual incubus, I would prefer that it be this year rather than 1991.

"After all, there is not much at stake this year, excepting a United States Senators and it would prefer a Democrast than a creature of Richard Yates. It is no use attempting to argue that Mr. Hopkins will not be a creature of the Governor. If he selected it will be because Yates is for him, and he would be a base ingrate to him, and he would be a base ingrate to him, and he would be a base ingrate to him, and he would be a base ingrate to him, and he would be a base ingrate to him, and he would be a base ingrate to him, and he would be a base ingrate to him, and he would be a base ingrate to him, and he would be a base ingrate to him, and he woul

CULLOM AND MASON INSULTED.

In every County Convention where the Yates-Hopkins machine was in control Culiom and Mason were openly insulted. The United States Senators were the objects of ridicule and hatred. Let Chairman Rowe of the Yates State machine present to Senator Culiom, along with his invitation for the old veteran to don "he party harness and save the party this year, the resolutions adopted by the Yates Hopkins outfit in Will, Sangamon, Morgan, Adams, Madison, Cumberland, Macon, Kane, Wionebrgo, Kankakee, Champaign and scores of other counties of the State.
